The diagram is a fishbone-style graphic organizer. A central vertical line has four horizontal lines branching out from it, creating a spine and four ribs on each side. On the left side, there is a blue-bordered box containing five white rectangular areas for text. The top area is labeled 'Positive arguments'. On the right side, there is a brown-bordered box containing five white rectangular areas for text. The top area is labeled 'Negative arguments'. The four horizontal lines from the central spine connect to the four areas below the top one on both the left and right sides.
