Scaffold: Report

Topic / heading:

General opening statement:

A series of paragraphs to describe a different feature of the topic. Each paragraph to start with a main idea or topic sentence. The use of subheadings is optional but makes it easier for the reader to follow the detailed information.

Concluding statement about the topic:

List of resources used to locate information / List of visual features or images to be used: